Budget bodes well for area

Park district, museum, schools to benefit from state legislation

By Curtiss A. Hartley
Staff writer

State Sen. Evelyn Bowles, D-Edwardsville, said Madison County fared very well in the latest legislative round.

"I am very happy with this state budget," she said. The Illinois General Assembly concluded just last week, and Bowles is happy with the results for her district. "Most importantly, we have been able to help numerous communities in the 56th District with a whole variety of programs and projects, instead of having to put most of our eggs in one basket," she said. "Our budget surplus and strong economy have allowed the General Assembly to truly share the wealth with many."

The state budget includes more than $1.8 billion for Madison County, including $270,100 for the Granite City Park District for repairs to the ice rink and Seivick Gardens.

Dave Polivick, director of Granite City Parks and Recreation, said he is very excited

Gateway hosts Motorola 300

Andretti wins record 38th victory

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

It was a great day for open-wheel racing at the Motorola 300 at Gateway International Raceway in Madison Saturday.

About 45,000 fans crowded the track to watch the sixth of 20 races in the CART FedEx Series, the first of three major races at the oval track this year.

With a dramatic late-race sprint, Michael Andretti was able to fend off Helio Castro-Neves and take the checkered flag.

It was Andretti's first CART win since last year's season opener in Homestead, Fla. Saturday's victory was a CART record-setting 38th for Andretti.

"Obviously (the crew) was telling me that Helio was coming," Andretti said after the race. "I give all the credit to Firestone. We decided to try to get track position and not

Mitchell incorporation on hold

Legislative attempt fails in Senate, still working on court appeal

By Paul Mackie
Staff writer

The death of a legislative bill in the Illinois Senate will put the fight to incorporate

Mitchell on hold for at least the next few months. The legislature closed its session on Friday before a Senate vote could be taken on the bill. Had the bill passed the Senate and been signed by the governor, Mitchell residents would have been able to vote on whether to become an incorporated village.

"That (bill) was just another avenue for us," said Jim Sinclair, an Alton attorney who is representing Mitchell. "We're still proceeding with an appeal of the judge's last ruling, which is not affected by the legislation one bit."

Mitchell hasn't been able to vote on the issue because state law requires a community with fewer than 7,500 people to have the consent of neighboring municipalities before incorporation can occur.

The bill, however, would

Site rezoned for Tri-City YMCA

Old Nameoki School property considered for proposed facility

By Michael Heil
Staff writer

Out with the old and in with the new, as in a new state-of-the-art

Tri-City YMCA. The Granite City Council on Tuesday approved rezoning the old Nameoki Elementary School property at 1620

Pontoon Road, which is being considered as a location for a new Tri-City YMCA. The Council changed the zoning from heavy to light commercial.

Under the amended zoning, only nursing homes, clinics, hospitals, and veterans or fraternal organizations would be permitted.

The issue has been controversial because residents have expressed concern about other potential uses for the land if it is rezoned, including massage parlors, motels or gas stations. They also have been concerned that such businesses might decrease their property values.

City officials are pleased with the idea of locating the YMCA at that spot.

Old bridge gets new life

Chain of Rocks becomes part of trail system

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

Politicians from both sides of the Mississippi River dedicated the Old Chain of Rocks Bridge in Madison Tuesday as the world's longest pedestrian/bicycle trail.

Officials from Illinois and Missouri braved a light rain to participate in ribbon-cutting ceremonies at the center of the bridge, which is owned by the city of Madison and leased to Trailnet Inc., the nonprofit agency renovating the structure.

"The Old Chain of Rocks Bridge is a historic landmark," said Ted Curtis, executive director of Trailnet. "The reopening of the bridge and future links to a network of trails will create new memories of the bridge and the majestic Mississippi River for generations to come."

The bridge opened in 1929, and for many years it was operated as a toll bridge by the city of Madison. A part of historic Route 66, it closed in 1968 following the completion of the Interstate 270 Chain of Rocks Bridge.

Since then it has been used for teen-age parties, was featured in the movie "Escape From New York," was leased by a gas pipeline company and was the scene of a double murder in the early 1990s that forced the city to close off its entrances.

The bridge will open to the public Saturday, with formal ceremonies beginning at 10 a.m.

KidCare enrollment period scheduled Saturday at SEMC

State program helps with children's health

KidCare. It is a simple name for a complex task of ensuring children's health insurance needs through the State of Illinois program. St. Elizabeth Medical Center takes the lead to reach out to qualified residents for KidCare during a day-long enrollment period, scheduled from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at the SEMC complex, 2100 Madison Ave., Granite City. The medical center and its auxiliary, in cooperation with the Illinois Department of Human Services, state Sen. James F. Clayborne Jr. and the Suburban Journals, will host enrollment activities for KidCare. Bob Turck, director of Patient Care Coordination, urges Illinois residents to inquire about the program. "It's possible that some residents who are working and paying health insurance premiums for their children may be eligible for financial assistance toward health insurance expenses," he said. According to the office of Gov. Jim Ryan, an estimated 100,000 to 200,000 low-income children and pregnant women might meet the KidCare program's enrollment requirements. For example, a family of three earning $2,140 per month may qualify for KidCare benefits. KidCare covers a broad area of health care for qualified children to age 19. Among them are doctor and nursing care, hospital and clinic care, laboratory test and X-ray, prescription drugs, medical equipment and supplies, medical transportation, dental care, eye care, psychiatric care, podiatry, chiropractic care and physical therapy. Pregnant women are eligible for pre-natal care and other medical services. Elzora Douglas, local coordinator of the state Department of Human Services in Granite City, said that many area residents who have worked to be off of aid from the state may be eligible for KidCare benefits.

"Sometimes, there is a stigma attached to residents receiving state aid," she said. "This program allows qualified state residents to take advantage of health care benefits and to take care of their families' health concerns."

Sen. Clayborne will join members of St. Elizabeth's Patient Care Coordination Department and representatives of the Department of Human Services in enrolling residents Saturday.

Turck said that in addition to enrollment day, appointments for enrollment may be made at the Medical Center from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays by calling 798-3018.

MCT introducing computer route system

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

A computerized system to give Madison County Transit District customers the easiest or fastest routes to take is expected to be available by the end of summer.

At a recent MCT board meeting, Managing Director Jerry Kane and Director of Operations Todd Plesko updated the board on the system.

At that time, Kane said the district uses paper maps and timetables to explain routes to customers. With the new system, a customer would give them their address or starting point, and when and where they want to go. The computer would print out a timetable, maps and alternates involving buses.

MetroLink and other options. That information could then be told to the customers, mailed or e-mailed to them.

Kane said the new technology would be "a dramatic improvement for commuters, and the Bi-State Development Agency is also putting the new system into place."

"It's really fast," Kane said. He added that even if a trip requires several transfers, the information is available quickly.

Plesko said the cost of the system is about $200,000, and is being paid out of Congestion Mitigation Air Quality funds. Those are federal funds used to make improvements.

School bus safety subjects of new state laws

By Sanford J. Schmidt
Staff writer

School buses in Illinois may be a little safer, thanks to legislation passed recently by the General Assembly.

The new laws would increase restrictions on people who may be issued a school bus driver's permit, require safety strobe lamps and crack down on bus drivers with any amount of alcohol in their bloodstream. The legislation was sponsored by state Rep. Jay Hoffman, D-Collinsville.

"Our children are our most precious gift. We need to do whatever we can to transport our children to school safely and to protect them once they arrive," Hoffman said.

Hoffman said he sponsored the legislation after Jesse White, the new Illinois secretary of state, spotted some weaknesses in the existing bus safety laws.

One of the bills automatically disqualifies people convicted of certain crimes from being issued bus driver's permits. The law already precludes some felons from getting such a license, but the new bill adds to the list of felonies that result in the automatic disqualification.

try to take on tires on our last pit stop, and it was a pretty big gamble.

"But when we got back out there, the tires just kept on going and going and going."

Series point leader Juan Montoya started in the pole position and led for part of the race, but several bad pit stops dropped him to an 11th-place finish.

However, he still retains a four-point lead over Dario Franchitti in the overall standings. Franchitti, who drives for Team Koal Green, finished third.

Paul Tracy, Franchitti's partner, started at the number two position, but was knocked out of the race in lap 147 after a collision with Franchitti.

Tracy was in second place, followed by Franchitti, when the two collided.

"I'm not very happy right now," Tracy said after the collision, in which the tires on the two cars brushed.

sending Tracy into the wall. "I'm not really sure exactly what happened. I think Dario and I went to sit down and talk about it."

Team owner Barry Green said it was just one of those things.

"It looked like it was just one of those racing incidents," he said. "The two of them got together and just touched."

"It wasn't a big hit. I think Paul probably thought Dario had backed off, and Dario was sort of trying to get out of there but he was too committed (to the corner)," he added. "It's too bad, they were both running very well. It would have been a great finish."

Another early casualty was John Manville driver Robby Gordon, who crashed in lap 11.

Gordon, who was bruised in the crash, went on to finish fourth second in the Indianapolis 500 the next day, leading the race until the final lap, when his car ran out of fuel.

For GJR officials, two of the biggest concerns are always weather and parking.

Last year's race was marred by wet weather, which cut short both practices.

Unlike last year, the sun stayed out for the entire three-day event.

"I didn't think the sun existed around here for a long time," Chris Pook, president and CEO of the Grand Prix Racing Association of Long Beach, GJR's parent company, said before the race.

"We just want a good safe race, a fast race, and a nice crowd," he said. "Let us show off the facility to the folks of Southwestern Illinois and St. Louis."

GJR President and General Manager Rod Wolter said the day was "excellent," with no traffic problems.

"One of the things we found is that when we have accessibility to all our parking lots — that we don't have some that are too wet to use — it kind of spreads out the traffic and gets them in and out faster," he said.

"This is the first race we've been able to use all our parking areas."

Chain of Rocks bridge gets brand-new life

This year's Earth Day Community Festival is being held on the bridge in conjunction with its reopening. The festival runs from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, and includes exhibits, music and other entertainment.

After the grand reopening, the bridge will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekends through September.

The reopening of the bridge signals the end of the first phase of the $4 million renovation project. The second phase includes amenities such as restrooms and parking.

As part of Tuesday's ceremonies, U.S. Rep. Jerry Costello, D-Belleville, and U.S. Sen. Christopher "Kit" Bond, R-Mo., were honored for their support of the bridge and other related trail projects.

Bond obtained $2 million in federal funds for the second phase of the bridge restoration project. Costello procured about $1 million for the Confluence Bikeway, a trail being engineered by the Madison County Transit Authority along the U.S. Corps of Engineers levee from Alton to Granite City, and $5 million for MetroBikeLink, a trail running parallel to the St. Clair County MetroLink extension.

"Our community owes an enormous debt of gratitude to Sen. Bond and Congressman Costello," said former U.S. Sen. Jack Danforth, chairman of St. Louis 2004. "Without their support, the dedication of the old Chain of Rocks Bridge would not be happening today."

"The reopening of this historic landmark is an important step in the development of one of the most extensive linear park and trail systems in the country."

The bridge eventually will be the centerpiece of the Confluence Greenway, a series of interconnected trails on both sides of the river that run from Alton to St. Louis, with connections to the Vandalia Trail along the Great River Road, the Katy Trail in Missouri, and other trails in Madison and St. Clair counties.

"It's a great project," Costello said. "It's a perfect example of a partnership where the government is involved with the private sector, not-for-profit corporations and the public to improve the quality of life, not only for us but for our children and grandchildren."

Other officials who participated in the ceremony were Madison Mayor John Hamm, state Sen. Evelyn Bowles, D-Edwardsville; Madison County Board Chairman Rudy Papa; St. Louis Mayor Clarence Harmon; and representatives of Trailnet Inc. and the Confluence Greenway project.

Area helped by increased state budget about the funds earmarked for repairs and renovations. The ice rink will get new refrigeration units and a new boiler system, he said. The historic gardens will have paths and roadways replaced, a new sprinkler system installed and a broken water line replaced.

Polivick said more state money is slated for the Granite City Park District, thanks to the work of state Sen. James F. Clayborne Jr., D-East St. Louis, and state Reps. Tom Holbrook, D-Belleville, and Steve Davis, D-Bethalto. Those funds will be used for work on the tennis courts and the main restroom building at Wilson Park, for the renovation of the softball complex at Worthen Park and for building repairs at the Madison Village Community Center.

Also included in the state budget is $300,000 for the city of Edwardsville to purchase and restore the Wilkey Theater; $260,000 for the Historical Museum to repair and renovate the Weir House and Annex; and $175,000 earmarked for the completion of the Senior Community Center in Glen Carbon.

County residents also will benefit from an $870,000 grant for Belleville Area College to build an Automotive Collision Repair Training Facility.

BAC President Dr. Elmer Kirchoff said it took a lot of work from a lot of people to put the project together.

Kirchoff said the new facility will be built at the Granite City Campus and he expects it to open in the fall of 2000.

"We have an Automotive Collision Council made up of about 20 members — all national, state, business and insurance leaders — who have supported us in this," Kirchoff said. "They've promised equipment, student internships and even faculty."

According to a recent study, Kirchoff said, the greater St. Louis area each year sees about 149 new jobs in automotive repair.

Mitchell quest put on hold

would have lowered that requirement to a population of 5,000 — a requirement that a judge already has ruled Mitchell easily meets.

State Sen. Evelyn Bowles, D-Edwardsville, said the bill didn't get out of the Rules Committee for a vote on the Illinois Senate floor. She said she plans to speak with state Rep. Steve Davis, D-Bethalto, about the bill in the fall.

"I looked at the bill and had some questions I wanted to discuss with Steve," Bowles said. "I posed that. This was going to affect a lot of communities and could possibly create more resistance than he had thought."

"I don't know if Steve will change the language and refine the bill in the fall."

THE LAW AID YOU

Recently a woman went to a local video store to apply for a membership card. The application provided that club members are liable for "all videotapes not returned." The woman was issued a membership card which was subsequently lost. The person who found the card went to the video store and rented several movies by signing the original cardholder's name.

The movies were never returned, and the video store sent the cardholder a bill for more than $200. The woman who received the bill was not even aware that the card had been lost. The question arose as to whether the club member was responsible for the stolen movies.

There appears to be no Illinois case directly on point with the facts presented in this situation. One would have to look at the contract between the video store and the member to determine how a court would decide the case. As previously noted, the membership application provides that members are liable for all videotapes not returned. The document also provides, however, that the membership card be transferred, and rental privileges are extended only to family members living in the same household.

The application clearly specifies that the member must present the membership card in order to rent. The card itself also has a place for the member's signature. This would seem to indicate that the video store had a duty to check the signature when the movies were rented. The signature of the video store was not even similar to the signature of the cardholder. One has to wonder whether a court would find a person liable for movies not returned when the video store was negligent in not checking the signature.

It is impossible to accurately predict how a given court would decide this case. It would seem, however, that no contract to rent these specific tapes was ever entered into since the member never signed the rental ticket. This signature here at the time of rental was a forgery. The membership card itself does provide that the member should report promptly if the card is lost or stolen. In this case, however, the member was apparently unaware the card was lost. Given the facts in this case, it is unlikely that the cardholder would be found liable for the stolen videotapes.

Tigers topple Triad

Edwardsville wins regional title

By Greg Shashack
Staff writer

Tim Funkhouser was a member of three regional championship teams as a player at Edwardsville High School from 1988 to 1990.

On Monday at the Hagnauer Sports Complex in Granite City, Funkhouser celebrated his first as Tigers coach.

With senior right-hander Nick Seibert retiring 15 of the first 16 batters he faced and the Tigers offense continuing to produce plenty of hits, Edwardsville rolled past Triad 9-2 in the title game of the IHSAA Class AA Granite City Regional.

The Tigers, regional champs for the fourth consecutive season, improved to 31-6 and will meet Mount Vernon (28-8) in the semifinals of the Edwardsville Sectional at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

Belleville East (32-3) takes on Althoff (26-4) in the other semifinal Saturday at 10 a.m.

"Our guys came out and played a fine game today, and that was good to see," said Funkhouser, the starting shortstop on the Tigers' 1990 state championship team. "We played with a lot of confidence. Getting up early on a team like Triad is very important because their running game is so good."

But the Knights never could get out of the blocks against Seibert. Justin McBride's two-out triple in the first inning accounted for Triad's only baserunner through the first five innings.

"We've stolen 240 bases, second all-time in the state of Illinois," Triad coach Darrell Butler said. "That's how I've geared everything. We're not real good playing station to station. But what can I say? You've got to get on first. And we didn't."

Seibert finished a two-hitter, striking out four and walking one while running his record to 12-1 with the complete game.

"He threw an excellent game," Funkhouser said. "Triad's an excellent hitting ballclub and Nick did really well hitting his spots and getting it over for strikes."

Edwardsville got to Triad starter Wayne Hubert early. Matt Bogle's double that bounced off the fence 398 feet away in center field drove in the Tigers' first run. Bogle advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored on Seibert's sacrifice fly to make the score 2-0 after one inning.

Andrew Honegger's RBI single increased the Tigers' lead to 3-0 in the third inning.

They added two more runs in the fourth, including one on Matt Turner's leadoff home run over the fence in left-center. Edwardsville chased Hubert after 3 1/2 innings, touching the Knights' senior for seven hits and five runs.

Triad broke through against Seibert in the sixth, with the first four batters reaching on a hit by pitch, a single, an error and a walk.

But the Knights self-destructed with two runners getting picked off and Seibert escaping the inning with a 5-2 lead.

The Tigers put the game away in the sixth against Triad reliever Mike

Coach hopes squad can lose passive attitude

By Rick Broome
Staff writer

The girls of summer have gone away, and summer hasn't begun yet.

The Granite City softball team dropped a heartbreaker, losing 2-0 to top seed Belleville West in the O'Fallon Regional to close their season at 10-14 and 6-6 in the Southwestern Conference. But as the year wound to its finish, the Warriors' fundamental skills emerged, allowing a glimpse of what might have been had they played solidly all season.

Germann: Warriors must purge losing mentality

"Last week we had five games," Granite City coach Deb Germann said. "We lost 3-1 to Triad. Against O'Fallon we lost 6-3, we lost to Alton in a close game. Those are all very good teams. We played (Belleville) Althoff (a 7-0 loss), and that was a good showing. It was 1-0 going into the top of the seventh. There is a team that will probably have a good shot at winning the sectionals themselves. We beat Waterloo and lost 1-0 to O'Fallon in eight innings. So yeah, they played well and came on at the end."

For the program's future, Germann looks for more consistent hitting and season-long fielding excellence. And some time spent winning ballgames under the hot sun wouldn't hurt, either.

"A lot of the fielding miscues happen because we are not always mentally focused in the games," Germann said. "For several players we can attribute that to a lack of experience. For several of our more experienced players, I really don't know what the answer is there."

"If they just play this summer, get some more experience under their belts and get on winning teams, they will be much better. My main contention is that they get too used to losing. You can't be passive about it and just say, 'Well, OK, we lost again. That doesn't fly. You have to just get a bad taste in your mouth every time you lose. Whether it's 10-0 or 1-0, a loss is a loss. So that's the main thing. They just have to get that losing attitude out of their system and not get used to it. It's a lot more fun to win than lose, that's for darned sure."

Granite City battled through adversity in 1999

Seniors move to bright collegiate careers, returning prep players form solid core

By Rick Broome
Staff writer

Granite City got its collective cleats defanged on the slick surface of Columbia Soccer

Complex Thursday night, dropping the sectional semifinal game 2-1 to Belleville East. The Warriors closed the 1999 soccer season with a record of 13-5-2. Though they didn't make it to state, there were plenty of positives.

"We were regional champs," Granite City coach Gene Baker said. "We defeated (Class 1A-3A) Incarnate Word, who wins the small-school

"I think we should do really well. Certainly we keep much more than the other teams (in the Southwestern Conference)."

Granite City coach Gene Baker
About his potential team next year tournament in Missouri. We did a nice job in the St. Dominic Tournament. So there were bright spots in the season.

"The really nice thing for the girls is that all of the seniors are moving on to really bright potential collegiate careers. The one who may not be playing soccer of course is Leah (Gambin), and she does everything. All the others got something, and we are really happy about that. We think that they can take something really positive from the season and go on."

Gambin, the 1999 Granite City High

School valedictorian, is attending Missouri Baptist College on several academic scholarships.

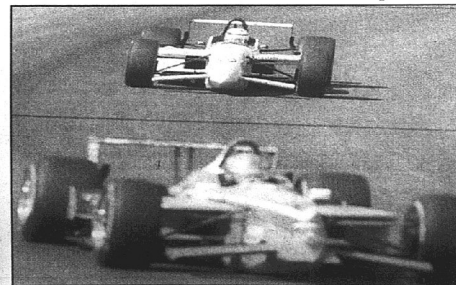

Team MVP Melissa Montgomery is heading to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to play alongside her sister, 1997 Granite City graduate Michelle.

Felicia Mohsen is joining her sister, Ismahani, at St. Louis University. Debra Aaron will play soccer and basketball at Lewis & Clark College.

Crystal Cavins and Amber Hubert also got their undergraduate scholar-athlete tickets punched. But the Warriors were more than the sum of their eldest parts. Granite has a strong foundation on which to build.

Baker touts team's feats, future

"To move on, we have an outstanding backfield returning," Baker said. "(Freshmen) Kelly Mitchell and Erin Tyler, Jessica Vasiloff. Kelly has incredible speed and looks to get rid of her (knee) brace next year. The other two made first- (Vasiloff) and second-team (Tyler) all-conference."

"We have the potential return of Erika Todd, who has so much ability. Keri (Ousley) had such a great year, she will lead us in many ways. In goal we return Chelsea (Percy) and we get a little deeper. Natalie (Judge) returns to play, we were very proud of her."

"(Junior varsity call-ups) Ashley Burdge and Holly Derocet came on at the end. We're hoping Jolene (Harris) comes out in top condition. Maria Roady could really develop. She's a freshman with a good left foot, and that would really help us. (Junior varsity coach) Virgil (Kirksey) was really happy with Rachel Gutierrez, who did real well. She'll move up and help us out. I think we should do really well. Certainly we need much more than the other teams (in the Southwestern Conference)."

Early in the season the Warriors had to deal with the loss of several key veteran players to suspension or injury. The gaping personnel holes showed. After fits and starts at the opening of games, a lethargy that seemed pervasive, Granite would have to play catch-up and work twice as hard to earn victories. The Warriors started to play a full 90 minutes late in the season, and the turnaround was dramatic.

"I think part of that was probably just trying to deal with adversity," Baker said.

"I think that was happening going back to the Edwardsville game (a 2-1 win), that was a pointed example of them not coming out ready to play. But these other people turned it around in the St. Dominic Tournament."

In the tourney, the Warriors went 2-0-1 in round-robin play before losing in the semifinals to Affton (Mo.) Cor Jesu Academy.

"I thought they really competed well under those conditions," Baker said. "Those things make for a successful season. I think they learned a great deal about themselves, and hopefully, they became better players and learned some values from some of the positive and even some of the negative experiences."

Baker heads camp

The 1999 Warrior Kicker

Camp springs to life once again this June 7-11 at the Granite City campus of Belleville Area College.

Sessions are held from 9 a.m. until noon Monday through Friday. Cost for the week-long camp is $85.

"It's 27 years old here," said Granite City head soccer coach and camp director Gene Baker. "It's located on the BAC field, so there are plenty of facilities. Most good, quality commuter teaching camps will run roughly $125 and up. We tried to keep the cost down."

"I usually have some guests. Sean Petrosky (a former Warrior standout, now playing in the German Bundesliga First Division with 1860 Munich) will stop by."

Registration forms can be picked up at Granite City High School. Completed applications should be returned to Baker at 1781 Vista Ridge, St. Louis, Mo., 63138.

Legion auction

The Tri City American Legion baseball team is sponsoring an auction 4 p.m. June 5 at the American Legion Hall, 1825 State St. in Granite City. Donations help fund American Legion baseball.

To make a donation, please call American Legion Post 113 (876-2902); Post Commander Ken Wallace (452-3608); or senior baseball coach Chad Kignoul (452-6152).

PSG tryouts

Granite City High School track coach Gene Briggs is conducting registration and tryouts for the Southwestern North Region team he will coach in the Prairie State Games this summer. Registrations and tryouts will take place at the Granite City campus of Belleville Area College. Times and dates are as follows: For Open Women (anyone out of high school) — June 1, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 2, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 3, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 4, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 5, 10 a.m.-12 noon (tryout); June 6, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 7, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 8, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 9, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 10, 6:30 p.m. (tryout); June 12, 10 a.m.-12 noon (tryout).

Soccer camps

Slobo's Summer Soccer Camps are scheduled in the Metro East for boys and girls ages 5-15. The camps offer instruction for field players and goalkeepers. The cost is $56, which includes a hand-stitched soccer ball, camp T-shirt and photo. For more information, call 314-227-3036.

Camp dates and times are as follows: • July 5-9, 8-10 a.m. at Wolf Branch School in Swansea; 11 a.m.-1 p.m. at Worthen Park in Granite City. • July 19-23, 3-5 p.m. at Estelle Kampmeyer School in O'Fallon. • Aug. 2-6 at West Park Bowl in Columbia.

the force, for the third out. "But Slater came in and she said, 'Germann, I thought there was one out. I blew it.' So she admitted it, and that was cool."

The Maroons plated the second run in the fourth on a lined shot hit right at Slater.

"Robyn had a ball hit between her legs, but it was hard hit," Germann said. "She stands at third base about 25 feet away, and they just crush one down the line."

Prior to the contest, Germann said the Warriors would have to play a clean game if they were to stand a chance.

"It was a well-played ballgame," Germann said. "Really the girls have played well the last week and a half. We played a good game against Alton, and only lost to O'Fallon 6-3. If you go back in the last week and a half, we have been playing better. "The girls came out and played well. We just didn't get that many hits off of Heather Hubert. O'Fallon only got two hits off of her, (in a 3-1 West victory) and they are a good team, so give that kid credit. She is at the top of her game right now. We had scoring opportunities, though. She walked a couple, she hit Emily (Douglas) to get on base. So the girls were there, we just couldn't get them home. "The Warriors ended their 10-14 season on a high note, giving a good showing against one of the area's best teams. "It's no shame to lose to West, especially when it's 2-0, no doubt about it," Germann said. "We just didn't have the timely hitting. We didn't have much hitting at all, period, but if we could have just knocked out a base hit or shot a gap, it would have made the difference."

"I had visions of doing something in the last inning. Reader led off with a walk, but (Hubert) struck out the next two batters. But they played well. I was pleased. I always tell them that if you give me 110 percent, and we lose to a good team, I can handle that. I'm proud of you, and we can deal with that type of loss. It's whenever we have several errors, and we have a lot of unearned runs, that's hard to take."

International hockey tourney has Metro East connection

By Scott Marlon
Staff writer

A hockey tournament this summer in Czechoslovakia will have a Metro East connection.

Don D'Agostino, the new head coach of the club team at Belleville East, will coach the U.S. high school invitational squad at the '99 Czech Hockey Challenge, to be held Aug. 8-16 in Prague. At least two local players — and maybe more — will be part of the U.S. team.

"Only high school players are eligible, and the selections were not solely based on academic skills," said D'Agostino, who is a senior master sergeant at Scott Air Force Base. "It's a combination of athletic and academic achievements. (Tournament organizers) were looking for solid ambassadors as well as good athletes. They couldn't have picked a better crew."

A native of Providence, R.I., D'Agostino began playing hockey at age 9. He joined the Air Force in 1978 and played hockey in Utah. In 1980, he began a three-year stint in Germany, where he played for the Bundesliga, the German Division II. He also coached in Germany.

Late on, D'Agostino was stationed in Maine, where he coached local teams and played in American leagues. He was assigned to Scott Air Force Base several years ago and spent two years (1996-97 and 1997-98) as the first coach for the O'Fallon High team in the Mississippi Valley Club Challenge. He spent last season as an assistant coach at Belleville East before recently being named as the Lancers' head coach.

D'Agostino also will be head coach of the club team at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville after spending last season as an assistant coach for the Cougars. At Scott, he is chief of White House communications for the Defense Information Systems Agency. He also teaches human resources development at Parks College and is a professional hockey instructor at the U.S. Ice Sports Complex in Fairview Heights.

"Some time back, I was contacted by John Montgomery from the U.S. International Sports Committee, which also works with the Junior Olympic program," D'Agostino said. "I've developed my own hockey manual, 'Point Position Hockey,' which will be published next year. I've developed a playbook, which includes all the plays and drills we'll be employing (at the tournament)."

The U.S. team, which was selected through resumes, currently consists of 22 players from Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Missouri, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Vermont and New Hampshire. The average age of the players is 15, but they have an average of 10 years of hockey experience.

"We have two local players: Jimmy Bedwell and Greg Avdoic of Belleville East," D'Agostino said. "I'm also trying to get a couple other local players involved, including Ryan McKinney (O'Fallon) and Justin Liefier (Frederburg)."

In addition to several Czechoslovakian teams, the tournament will feature teams from Poland, Russia, Germany, Italy and the Netherlands. "You can also develop a good sense of sportsmanship going over to those countries," D'Agostino said. "Europeans have always maintained that frame of mind. That kind of competition can break down barriers and allow players to share each other's strengths and skills."

"John Montgomery said one of the representatives of the U.S. International Sports Committee traveled to Prague and watched some of the teams that will be in the tournament. It will be extremely competitive, physical and fast-paced hockey."

All players on the U.S. team were given packets by the committee with instructions on how to raise funds to attend the tournament. D'Agostino — who is soliciting contributions from local businesses and merchants to raise funds for the minicamp — doesn't have to pay expenses for his trip but is not being paid to coach. "My gratification for doing this is intrinsic — it's something I love," D'Agostino said. "I get satisfaction helping young men and young ladies who are new to the ice hockey environment."

For information about the team or to make a contribution, call D'Agostino at 624-8301.

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clark

Haynes-Clark

Marilyn R. Haynes and Gerald W. Clark were married on Nov. 21, 1998, at Jubilee Pentecostal Church of God in Granite City, with the Rev. E. V. Hanks officiating.

The bride is the daughter of William Haynes of Wood River and Donna Chesnut of Granite City.

The groom is the son of Ruby Stultz of Granite City.

Victoria Stephens of Granite City attended her friend as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Carla Haynes of Granite City and Joanne Showcase of Alton.

Billy Venable of Granite City attended his friend as best man. Groomsmen were Charles Hozian of Harvester, Mo., and Larry Millette of Bethalto.

Jamie Haynes of Granite City was flower girl. Jeffrey Stephens of Granite City was ringbearer. Frank Haynes of Granite City and Charles Piro of East Alton were the ushers and Kassandra Haynes of Granite City was giver of the bride.

Following a reception at the VFW Post 1300 Hall in Granite City, the couple honeymooned in Mexico and now reside in Granite City.

Engagement

Svezia-Chamblin

Jean M. Svezia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Svezia of Granite City, and Todd M. Chamblin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Chamblin of Belleville have announced their engagement.

Svezia is a graduate of Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville and Venice High School. She is employed by Prairie Farms Dairy as executive assistant to the vice president of sales.

Chamblin is a graduate of Belleville Township High School West and attended Belleville Area College. He is employed by the City of Granite City in the Street Department.

They are planning a Sept. 4 wedding at Holy Family Catholic Church in Granite City.

Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lubak

Lubak 65th anniversary

Steve and Helen (Rogenski) Lubak of Madison celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary May 5, 1999.

They were married May 5, 1934, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Madison. Mr. Lubak is retired from Nesco Steel Barrel Inc. in Granite City. Mrs. Lubak is a homemaker.

They are the parents of three children, Margie (Roger) Benway of Edwardsville, Jeanette (Wayne) Scannell of Granite City and Tom (Judy) Lubak of Alton. They have eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The Lubaks had a celebration with their family.

Baker 30th anniversary

Ernie and Brenda (Young) Baker, formerly of Granite City, celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary March 7, 1999.

The Bakers were married March 7, 1969, at First Assembly of God Church in Glen Carbon, with the Rev. Orlando Hale officiating. He has worked for the state for 24 years. She is a homemaker.

They have two children, Lee Baker and his wife, Chrissy, of Granite City, and Brent Baker of San Diego.

FROM LAST WEEK

WINSTON CUP SERIES
Jeff Burton captured his third victory of the season, and first ever at Lowe's Motor Speedway, with a richly entertaining victory over Bobby Labonte in the Coca-Cola 600. Tony Stewart was a contender as well, but the strain of driving in both the Indy 500 and the Coke 600 eventually caused Stewart to slump to fourth, behind Mark Martin, Burton and Martin, both of whom drive for Jack Roush. Ward Burton and third, Labonte and Stewart, in Joe Gibbs-owned Pontiacs, were second and fourth.

BUSCH GRAND NATIONAL
Another impressive weekend for Martin began with yet another BGN victory in the CarQuest 300 at the 1.5-mile Charlotte tri-oval. Martin, who has never won the series championship, won for the 38th time in his career. That's seven more than anyone in history.

FEUD OF THE WEEK

Tony Stewart vs. John Menard

It was Menard, Stewart's ex-Indy Racing League car owner, who unsuccessfully sued to prevent Stewart from competing in both the Indianapolis 500 and the Coca-Cola 600. Menard's car, driven by Bobby Gordon, would have won at Indy had it not run out of gas just before the white flag.

NASCAR This Week's Monte Dutton gives his opinion:
"Stewart wants to put his tiff with Menard behind him, but on a day in which the brilliant Winston Cup rookie finished in the top 10 in both events, one of his happier moments had to be when Gordon, in Menard's car, coasted to a halt. The failed gamble handed the 500 to Kenny Brack, who drives for A.J. Foyt, with whom Stewart is close."

FROM THE ARCHIVES

■ Rick Mast, an otherwise little-known driver from Rockbridge Baths, Va., earned himself a place in history by winning the pole for the first Brickyard 400 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway in 1994. Mast turned a lap at 172.414 mph at the 2.5-mile track, which had hosted only open-wheel cars since the track opened in 1911.

Stewart's double impressive moral victory, despite two failures

By Monte Dutton
NASCAR This Week

CONCORD, N.C. — In the end, Tony Stewart's double was a moral victory but a glorious failure.

At the end of the Coca-Cola 600, Stewart simply ran out of fuel, not in his No. 14 Pontiac but in his No. 14 Ford. He was out of fuel, but the final 100 miles saw him fade badly to a fourth-place finish.

Stewart collapsed as he climbed out of his car and was rushed to the infield medical center. "It was disappointing that Bobby (Labonte) lost a million dollars by a hundred feet, but I can't fault the effort of either of my drivers," said Joe Gibbs. "Tony had a great day. You can't fault his effort and the courage he showed."

■ ALL PETTY BLUE: In August, four Petty Enterprises vehicles will carry similar paint jobs into competition at three events commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Ramblin'-man-based family operation.

Petty Enterprises driven by Kyle Petty and John Andretti will participate in the Brickyard 400 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Saturday, Aug. 7. A few miles away, in Clermont, Ind.,

Indianapolis Raceway Park will host a Craftsman Truck Series event on Thursday, Aug. 5, and a Busch Grand National event on Friday, Aug. 6. Jimmy Hensley drives a Petty-owned Dodge Ram truck, and Adam Petty drives Chevrolet and Pontiacs in Busch Grand National. All four vehicles will carry similar blue ("Petty blue" to race fans) paint schemes with gold trim.

■ MOORE FOR NADEAU: Veteran mechanic Nost Moore has joined Melling Racing to be "car chief" for Jerry Nadeau. Moore will work in tandem with crew chief Jeff Buice on the No. 9 Ford. The Melling team was saddened by the death on May 29 of Harry Melling, 54, the team's owner and founder. Melling's son remains in primary charge of the race team.

■ THREE BY THE WAYSIDE: Wednesday night's Charlotte qualifying session marked the first time all season that Tony Stewart, Dale Jarrett and Kenny Irwin did not take one of the 25 available first-round spots. Now only Mark Martin and Jeff Gordon can claim that distinction.

PROFILE

Tony Stewart

By Monte Dutton
NASCAR This Week

The overwhelming favorite for Winston Cup rookie of the year pulled off another memorable weekend, competing in both the Indianapolis 500 and the Coca-Cola 600 on the same day. What's more, Stewart finished in the top 10 in both events, placing ninth at Indy and fourth at Charlotte.

Stewart also finished third in the Winston, the all-star event held the previous weekend at Charlotte Motor Speedway.

Before coming to NASCAR, Stewart won three United States Auto Club championships (midget, sprint-car and Silver Crown) in the same season (1995), sat on the pole for the 1996 Indy 500 and was the Indy Racing League champion in 1997.

■ HOMETOWN: Born and raised in Columbus, Ind.

■ AGE: 28

■ MARITAL STATUS: Engaged to Krista Dwyer

■ CAR: No. 14 Home Depot Pontiac Grand Prix, owned by Joe Gibbs

■ FIRSTS: Start (Feb. 14, 1999, at Daytona), pole (April 18, 1999, at Martinsville), win (none)

■ CAREER STATISTICS: 12 starts, 1 pole, 0 wins, 3 top-five finishes, 5 top-10s, almost $700,000 in career earnings.

■ HOW DID BEING A WINSTON CUP DRIVER AFFECT YOUR PERFORMANCE AT INDY?

"The nice thing about being in the Winston Cup Series is that it has trained me to deal with 500-mile races. Knowing the fact that I had to run 600 race laps, as opposed to 1-100 miles, my mind-set toward a long race helped me relax a little more in the car... and be more patient. Now that I have run a couple of 500-mile races, I know that I have to be patient at the beginning of the race to conserve myself physically, as well as the race car. It was a long day, more demanding physically than mentally."

■ DESCRIBE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DRIVING A WINSTON CUP CAR AND AN INDY RACING LEAGUE (IRL) CAR.

"If you start out with the IRL cars you have the different wings and the underbodies. The turbulence of the air becomes a critical factor with the handling characteristics of the car. You need to know how to handle that going into the race. Your turbulence will be at the start of the race and since we were starting 24th, I had to be pretty careful. I think my experience in the last three years in IRL has prepared me for starting that far back

Tony Stewart talks with the media as he prepares to climb into his car prior to the start of the Coca-Cola 600.

even though it is uncustomary for us. Dealing with the aerodynamics all day, you try to keep the car flowing in clean air because that is a big part of handling the car. When you switch gears and go to the Winston Cup cars, you have a lot of banking to hold the car, unlike IRL. When you are dealing with a 3,400-pound car, you are dealing more with mechanical grip than aerodynamic grip. You pay a lot more attention to the balance of the car."

■ ARE YOU SURPRISED AT THE AMOUNT OF SUCCESS YOU'VE HAD AS A ROOKIE?

"Absolutely. I am definitely surprised. The Winston Cup Series is so competitive, that to come in as a rookie, you just want to make the race and then complete them. If I had accomplished that goal as a rookie, that would have been a good season. To have the finishes we have had, and get the experience that we have had, we are surprised with where we are at. It is due to the race team, our great sponsor in Home Depot, and Greg Zipadelli as a crew chief. We have the key ingredients to make us successful."

Trackside Trivia

1. What Craftsman Truck Series driver works with children who are either in treatment or survivors of cancer?
2. Who was the only driver to win the Darlington spring race three years in a row?
3. What NASCAR driver's real name was Francisco Eduardo Menendez?

ANSWERS: (1) Randy Tomlinson; (2) David Pearson; (3) Frank Kump.

CREW OF THE WEEK

■ It's no small feat to qualify in the top 10 for your first Winston Cup race and then to finish in the top 20. Hats off to driver Dale Earnhardt Jr., crew chief Tony Eury Jr., and "car chief" Tony Eury Jr., who managed to lift their effort from the Busch Grand National level to Winston Cup with considerable aplomb. The crew competed successfully in both Lowe's Motor Speedway weekend events. Dale Jr. finished 16th in the Coca-Cola 600, three laps behind winner Jeff Burton.

Local Saints Alive group takes fun-filled trip to Myrtle Beach

Saints Alive, the senior adult group of the Madison County Baptist Association, and a few friends met at the Baptist Center May 10 and headed for Myrtle Beach, S.C., where they had accommodations for three fun-filled days at Carabelle Beach Resort.

They stopped and spent the night in the Wingate Inn near Sevierville, Tenn. After a continental breakfast the next morning, they continued their trip toward Myrtle Beach. They stopped several times and enjoyed the scenery and reported the Great Smoky Mountains were beautiful.

After arriving at the resort, they had dinner in the J. Edwards Restaurant with a choice of entrees. They attended the performance of "Legends in Concert" at Legends Theater. The performers there did a good job of imitating Frank Sinatra, Betsy Patton, Elvis Presley and others.

They went to Barefoot Landing and the Great American Riverboat on Wednesday. Docking began there for the cruise down the Intracoastal Waterway of Myrtle Beach, where the group enjoyed box lunches. They also shopped in the Barefoot Landing area.

Dinner was enjoyed in Crabman's Restaurant, noted for its 72-item food bar, and they later attended The Carolina Opry.

On Thursday morning they viewed the live taping of the TNN program "Crook and Chase," performed in the Gatin Theater in the Fantasy Harbour area. They stopped in Sam Snead's Restaurant for dinner and later enjoyed a musical variety show.

"Celebrations" in the Alabama Theater. On the way home, they stayed overnight in the Wingate Inn in Sevierville and ate at Eddie's Heart and Soul Restaurant in Pigeon Forge, Tenn. They also attended a live performance featuring the multi-talented Louise Mandrell in her Pigeon Forge Theater. The happy travelers returned home Saturday.

They included Eddie and Marie Johnson, Ron and Billie Young, Benny and Sharon Glasgow, Earl and Fern Affolter, Argil and Judy Williams, Ed and Betty Gerdas, Adele Wasylyak, JoAnn Hommer, Dorothy Smith, Delores Brunce, Ellen Douglas, Louise Baker, Vera Kirkpatrick, Dianne Bick, Evelyn Schneiderwind, Carol Bean, Ruth Dagon, Pat Wallis, Marge North, MCBAA sponsor Elwyn Wilkinson and bus driver David Crawford.

The Coolidge Middle School Choir went to the Illinois State Choir Contest May 7 at Abraham Lincoln Elementary School in Belleville. The choir brought home a first-place medal for its performance.

The choir has had a very successful and productive year. The Coolidge Middle School Drama Troupe performed the play "Cut to the Chase" Tuesday. The troupe was a new group among the many clubs and activities that Coolidge offers.

Tryouts were held at the beginning of the year. Many people tried out, but only 30 made the troupe. The drama troupe is headed by Mrs. Chapman.

St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Associates Awards Banquet was held May 14. Jessie Willie Madison received the Geogianna Moses Ellerman Scholarship. Patricia Richardson received the Mildred Harris Award of Excellence and Ketra Collins received the March of Dimes Nurse of the Year Award.

Other nominees were Marilyn Baumann, Home Care Services; John Flath, Food and Nutritional Services; Brenda Held, Physical Medicine and Rehab; Barbara Killingsworth, Patient

Accounts; Denise Main, Women and Newborn Services; Barbara Mihalich, Radiology; John Mohl, Community Relations; David Nulsen, Materials Management; Wanda Watt, Cardiovascular Lab; and Donna Wiegand, 4 Doctors.

Volunteer nurses are needed for the first aid station in Edwardsville City Park June 12-13 to work a two-hour time period for "Festival 66." All volunteers will receive special "Festival 66" T-shirts.

The North Venice Annual Reunion for former residents will be June 13 at the Madison Recreation Hall on Seventh Street.

The original list of names has been misplaced. Several former residents did not receive reminder cards, but are still eligible to attend, with a covered bowl for the picnic dinner.

The Royal Ranger Outpost is having a barbecue fund-raiser Saturday. The barbecue will be located at Wal-Mart, 307 W. Pontoon Road, Granite City. The tepee and a few other frontier shelters will be displayed at this event, and the Frontiersman Camping Fellowship members will be in 1930 costume.

The barbecue will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Pork steaks, bratwurst and hot dog plates with cole slaw and potato salad will be available. There also will be sandwiches and soda. A free dessert will be included with plates while it lasts.

The Combined Maintenance Division will sponsor the ninth Army Depot Reunion June 12 at Ralph and Charlie's Restaurant on Pontoon Road. Registration will begin at 11:30 a.m., and a buffet lunch will be served at noon. The cost is $15 per person. Attendance prizes will be given. Karaoke will be the entertainment. Reservations can be made by calling 677-6251 or 452-8653.

Maxine Green covers the special section for the Granite City Press-Record. If you have an item you would like to see in this column, please contact Maxine at 381-6255.

The wheels go 'round and 'round

Andretti, fans win at Gateway's third Motorola 300

Top, Robby Gordor hits the wall in turn 3 after 11 laps ending his day. Clockwise, Michel Jourdain Jr. of team Payton Conyne Racing pits early as his crew works on the car. Juan Montoya concentrates while preparing for the race. Victory for Michael Andretti as he waves to the fans in the winners circle. Racers speed along turn 4 at the Motorola 300.

Chinese Days set at Garden

Acrobats, dance among many events planned over the weekend

By Glen Sparks
Staff writer

The Missouri Botanical Garden is devoting an entire weekend to Chinese Cultural Days this year.

Visitors can explore the cultural heritage of China from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at the Botanical Garden, 4344 Shaw Blvd.

Cultural Days has been a one day-event in the past. "The program has been extended as well," said Leslie Muskopf, a garden spokeswoman.

"It's a beautiful time of the year and a unique event in this region."

The opening ceremony begins at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Miles Sculpture Garden. Chinese Cultural Days concludes with the colorful Lion Dance, which lures visitors to join a parade that leads to a makeshift Chinese village.

The village, complete with various merchants, craft masters and performers, will be a re-enactment of typical Chinese street life through the centuries.

The renowned Shanghai Acrobatic Troupe will perform five shows during the weekend at the Shoenberg Auditorium. Performances are scheduled for 11 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Sunday.

Because the troupe is so popular, the Garden is charging a separate $5 admission charge. Tickets will be available both days at the auditorium.

Proceeds from ticket sales to these performances benefit the Chinese Cultural Foundation.

Visitors also can enjoy children's games, Kung Fu shows, Chinese opera and cooking demonstrations.

Tea ceremonies, Tai-Chi demonstrations and tours of the Margaret Grigg Nanjing Friendship Garden also will be a part of the weekend activities.

For more information about the events, call the Garden hotline at 577-9400.

'Thirteenth Floor' hits a familiar theme

Thriller explores a world created by computer

By Ronnie Roy
Staff writer

It's an odd phenomenon in Hollywood — how two films with the same concept come out at roughly the same time. Last year it was falling asteroids and computer-generated ants; the year before — vol- canoes.

This summer the hot topic is "the world we live in is a computer program."

Such is the plot of the current Keanu Reeves hit, "The Matrix," and so goes the story of the new film, "The Thirteenth Floor."

The sci-fi thriller stars Armin Mueller-Stahl as Hannon Fuller, a genius who has recreated 1937 Los Angeles on a computer chip. He keeps his virtual reality world in a huge room of computers on the 13th floor of his office building.

Using one of the computers,

Fuller can place his mind into one of the residents of this world. This allows him to live another life, one where he is wealthy and privileged.

But Fuller discovers a horrible secret, and is murdered before he can tell it to his No. 1 man, Douglas Hall (Craig Bierko). Hall wakes up the next morning with blood on his shirt and a blank spot in his memory.

Complicating matters is the sudden appearance of a mysterious woman claiming to be Fuller's daughter, Jane (Gretchen Mol). She says she's come home from Paris to shut down the business at the wishes of her father. Hall was unaware Fuller had a daughter.

Hall, realizing he's the prime suspect in Fuller's murder, decides to go into the virtual world to find any clues to the crime. There he uncovers Fuller's disturbing secret.

Craig Bierko in a scene from the Columbia Pictures release, "The Thirteenth Floor."

While "The Thirteenth Floor" contains a few interesting twists, it is fairly predictable. Fuller's big secret is no big surprise, and the ending, while clever, is easy to anticipate.

The film also suffers from its similarity to "The Matrix" and last year's "Dark City."

Had "The Thirteenth Floor" been released first, it would have seemed fresh.

Now, it comes off as a copy of two much better films.

Wildey Theater project may get $300,000 grant

By Sanford J. Schmidt
Staff writer

Edwardsville's defunct Wildey Theater may get new life, thanks to anticipated state funding of $300,000.

Edwardsville Mayor Gary Niebur said city officials are working with a group called The Alliance of Glen Carbon and Edwardsville to preserve, renovate and reopen the historic theater building. Niebur said the money expected from the state is "within the parameters" of the amount needed to buy the building. City officials and members of The Alliance have said they are interested in attracting a private developer to renovate the building and turn it into a theater or some other business for public use.

"We do have some interested parties, and we are discussing specifics with one of them," Niebur said.

The money from the state allows the city to be more flexible in its negotiations, Niebur said.

The funding was announced by Sen. Evelyn Bowles, D-Edwardsville, after the state budget was approved late last week.

"I am very happy with this state budget," Bowles said.

"Our budget surplus and strong economy have allowed the General Assembly to truly share the wealth with many."

Niebur said The Alliance has an option to buy the Wildey Theater from owners Frans and Marie Von Balkom, who are living in Japan.

The Alliance has been actively promoting and exploring proposals for redevelopment. Niebur said he could not be more specific because the negotiations are ongoing.

The landmark on North Main Street opened in 1909. It has presented movies, vaudeville shows, traveling productions, lectures, concerts, comedy acts and cooking shows.

The theater was built by a group of businessmen and the International Order of Odd Fellows. It was named for Thomas Wildey, a founder of the order.

The theater was designed as a multipurpose building. In addition to the main auditorium on the first floor, there is a large hall with a stage on the second floor. The third floor originally was used for Odd Fellows meetings.

Movies were a staple at the Wildey for decades.

Residents raised enough money to reopen the building as a performing arts center, but it closed again in 1986.

Casino Queen offers variety of music

The Casino Queen stage is booked solid with hot sounds for June.

The Queen offers rock, jazz, disco, classics and blues in the land-side Royal Clubhouse Sports Bar lounge nearly every day of the week. The fun lasts from 6:30 p.m. to 1:15 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

Monthly parties on the outdoor observation deck kick off June 23. They are held from 5 to 11 p.m. the fourth Wednesday of each month throughout the summer. The standard $2 casino admission entitles all patrons to food and drink specials with live broadcasts of radio state FM 101 The River and St. Louis' own disco funk ensemble, Dr. Zhivegas.

The Queen welcomes "Ticket to the Beatles" June 26. The band mimics the Beatles from each stage of their history-changing career.

Live entertainment in June includes:

Thursday — Michael Fitzgerald, saxophone.

Friday and Saturday — David Dee, blues.

Tuesday — Lauren James and Smoking Joe, karaoke.

June 10 — Michael Fitzgerald, saxophone.

June 11-12 — Soul Reunion with Lauren James.

June 15 — Lauren James

and Smoking Joe, karaoke.

June 17 — Michael Fitzgerald, saxophone.

June 18-19 — Facts O Life, '50s and '60s with a bit of comedy.

June 22 — Lauren James and Smoking Joe, karaoke.

June 23 — 5 to 11 p.m., observation deck party with Dr. Zhivegas.

June 24 — Michael Fitzgerald, saxophone.

June 15 — Fantasy variety dance.

Summer solstice to be observed at Mounds

Schools also plan archaeological excavations from June 7 through Aug. 13

Archaeological excavations, a summer solstice sunrise observance and dance performances highlight June activities at Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site.

Several schools will conduct research projects at Cahokia Mounds this summer. From June 7 through Aug. 13, field schools from Washington University in St. Louis and Northwestern University in Evanston will conduct a joint project to reopen old excavations into Mound 34, which partially was dug in the 1950s.

The goal of this project is to re-examine the soil profiles and features with today's improved technology.

Researchers hope to get a better understanding of the form and function of this mound, the sequence of construction and where this mound fits into the occupation at Cahokia Mounds.

The 1950s excavations recovered a number of exotic and high status artifacts, and this new project should place those old findings in a more precise context and show how this mound reflects changes in Cahokia society in 1200 A.D.

Western Michigan University and Northwestern University will continue a four-year project started last summer to locate the route of the palisade, or stockade, wall around the western portion of the site.

This defensive wall enclosed the central area of Cahokia, and while its location had been confirmed on the east and south sides, the location of the west and north sides had been unknown.

At the end of last season, the project discovered evidence for the wall, and this year's field schools will continue following its route.

The summer solstice sunrise will be observed June 20 at the reconstructed Woodhenge, located one-half mile west of Monks Mounds. Visitors should arrive by 5:20 a.m. to hear about the discovery, form and function of this Mississippi sun calendar as the rising sun aligns with two posts in this large circular monument.

The Kahok Dancers, a nonnative group, will present interpretive performances of Indian dance at 2 and 3 p.m. June 20 in the Interpretive Center auditorium.

The performances are free and open to the public.

The exhibit, "Transportation Archaeology," continues through September. Prepared by the Illinois Department of Transportation, it includes very detailed miniature dioramas created by exhibit specialist Fred Brown. Four sites are featured: the 1814 Edward Mitchell House; a Greek Revival farmhouse in the Illinois Valley; the Old Landmark Tavern, a 19th century two-story log structure that was a stagecoach stop on the Vincennes to St. Louis Road; the Elizabeth Pottery, an 1850 pottery kiln and factory in northwestern Illinois; and the Kun Brewery, a mid-19th century structure in Springfield.

Only subsurface traces of these structures remained, and each of these sites was discovered using archaeological research during IDOT construction projects.

Guided tours of Cahokia Mounds are offered at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and 12:30 and 2:30 p.m. Sunday. The first tour starts at the Monks Mound parking lot for a tour of that mound, and the second tour leaves from the Interpretive Center to visit the

Two Mounds and Grand Plaza.

Self-guided tours are available through the loan of a cassette player or the purchase of a guidebook, available in 13 languages, in the Museum Shop.

For visitors with disabilities, a Braille guidebook is available, as is a 17-minute video tour that may be viewed upon request.

Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site, administered by the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency, is located just eight miles from downtown St. Louis near Collinsville, off Interstates 55/70 and 255, and Illinois 111, on Collinsville Road.

It is accessible by Bus No. 555 from the MetroLink station at Fifth and Missouri in East St. Louis.

Cahokia Mounds is open daily free of charge, although a donation of $2 for adults and $1 for children is suggested. For more information or a 1999 calendar of events, call 346-5160.

Trivia

If you've already seen all of the Adam Sandler and Jim Carrey comedy flicks and want to rent something different — and better, I have a name for you: Peter Sellers.

Sellers died in 1980 and, with the passage of time largely has been forgotten by the public.

This is a mistake, as Sellers was one of the funniest men ever to appear on screen. You could do much worse than choosing films with his name on them at the video store.

There are some turkeys among his film credits, but he made many, many clever and hilarious motion pictures.

My favorite Sellers film is "A Shot in the Dark," from 1964. This is the second of his Inspector Clouseau movies and is the best of a terrific group. His eccentric accent and mannerisms are riotous.

Rent that film, "The Pink Panther," "The Return of the Pink Panther" or "The Pink Panther Strikes Again" and you'll have a fun evening.

Another amusing Sellers movie is "The Party" from 1968. He plays an actor from India appearing in a Gunga Din-type film who ruins the movie when he accidentally blows up the set before the cameras are ready to capture it. Instead of being blacklisted like the producer wants, he gets inadvertently invited to a big Hollywood bash, which he manages to ruin.

A Sellers film considered to be a classic is "Dr. Strange love Or: How I Stopped Worrying and Love the Bomb." In it, Sellers plays the title character as well as the president of the United States and a British officer. He received a Best Actor Academy Award nomination for the performance.

One more to look for is "Being There," from 1979. He plays an idiot who, through misunderstandings, becomes a major political figure.

This week's trivia quiz is on Peter Sellers movies.

1. In a famous Inspector Clouseau scene, what major crime does he fail to notice while he harasses an organ grinder and his monkey?

2. From "Being There," what is the real profession of Sellers' character?

3. What is Inspector Clouseau's first name?

4. In which of his films does Sellers play a character claiming to be James Bond?

5. In which of his films does Sellers tell people there is no fighting in the war room?

6. From "The Party," which actor better known for his TV roles plays the producer who wants Sellers' character banned from Hollywood?

7. Which character in the Pink Panther movies repeatedly attacks Clouseau in his own apartment?

8. In which of his flicks does Sellers play the leader of a small country that declares war on the U.S. in order to lose and get aid?

9. Sellers' plays Peter O'Toole's psychiatrist in what film?

10. What role does Herbert Lom have in the Pink Panther movies?

ANSWERS: 1. A bank robbery. 2. He's a gardener. When he talks about gardening, everybody thinks he's talking about the economy. 3. Jacques. 4. "Casino Royale." 5. "Dr. Strangelove." 6. Gavin MacLeod, who went on to "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" and "The Love Boat." 7. Cato, Clouseau's valet. These are some of the most uproarious moments I have ever viewed. 8. "The Mouse That Roared." 9. "What's New, Pussycat?" 10. Chief Inspector Dreyfus, Clouseau's boss.

Strawberry Festival is Saturday

Event raises funds for Children's Home

By Cathy Pezold
Staff writer

Even though a lot has changed through the years, the annual Strawberry Festival for the Missouri Baptist Children's Home has stayed the same.

The 108th Annual Strawberry Festival will be from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Saturday on the Bridgeton campus of the Children's Home, 11300 St. Charles Rock Road.

"We've been doing it a long time, and the funny thing is it's not much different than the first except it's bigger," said Lori Dyess, public relations director for the home.

The festival is a main fund-raiser for the Missouri Baptist Children's Home, which opened in 1886. Today the home has five campuses statewide providing residential care, foster and adoptive services, crisis pregnancy services and 30-day emergency care.

Activities throughout the day will include quilt and craft auctions, craft sales, two stages of live entertainment, a children's carnival area, food and beverage booths and a craft demonstration area.

Dyess said the Strawberry Festival got its name when the home moved to its Bridgeton location in 1907.

"Originally, the property behind the home was a huge strawberry field," she said. "The children actually picked and sold the strawberries at the festival to raise money for the home."

Keeping with tradition, this year's festival will feature strawberry delicacies such as chocolate-covered strawberries, strawberry pies and strawberry milkshakes.

Dyess said despite the name, the festival's main attraction through the years has been the quilt auction, where bids range from $250 to $2,000.

"At the first festival, they had maybe a handful of items for the auction," she said.

"This year we have about 100 handmade quilts that people have donated just out of the goodness of their hearts. It's really amazing how many people are willing to help."

In addition to the donations, more than 200 volunteers will be on hand Saturday.

Horoscope

THURSDAY, JUNE 3

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 3) Because of the influential contacts you're about to make in the year ahead, it looks like you'll be moving up into classier circles of friends. Their associations will prove very helpful to you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) People who find themselves in your company will be truly blessed today, because your enthusiasm and warmth uplifts the spirits of those who are down and need a note of goodwill.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Giving and helping others is a natural instinct for you. When you do so today, it'll turn out to be more of a joyous experience than normal as you witness the happy results.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) When others see you are truly serious and earnest about a new endeavor you're undertaking today, chances are they'll jump on board and enthusiastically support your cause.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) When plotting your strategy today as to how to acquire a material objective, be sure to incorporate bold, prompt actions in order to ensure success. Your goal can be realized.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) There is far more sunshine in the world than shadows. You'll quickly discover this today by stepping into the light where you can look problems in the eye and watch them be defused.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If an associate with whom you enjoy a partnership arrangement is doing as good of a job as you could do, don't jump in and rock the boat. Sit back and enjoy the ride.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) What a diplomat you are today! You have the ability to say something painful that needs saying, but you'll do so in a way that'll seem more like a compliment than criticism.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Today is the day to concentrate on a meaningful career goal, because when you apply your efforts and energy on this important target, you won't miss your mark.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) In a social situation where the progress has not been up to your satisfaction, step in and personally take control. You're the one who can bring it all together for everyone.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If there is something constructive you can do today which would benefit everyone in your family, then by all

Cyber cafe planned at center

By Paul Mackie
Staff writer

Two grants may help send Glen Carbon senior citizens into cyberspace.

The Village Board approved a resolution last week to apply for a $3,000 grant from Illinois Power to establish a cyber cafe in the planned $368,000 Senior Citizens/Community Center to be located behind Village Hall.

"It's a really exciting facility offered to seniors, but there's a lot of groundwork to be done yet," said Village Trustee Ben Maliszewski.

The village will apply for the Illinois Power "Bright Ideas" grant, which requires a $3,000 match out of the village's General Fund. The $6,000 could pay for about three computers and other media devices necessary for a cyber cafe, Maliszewski said.

He said old computers at the Village Clerk's office had been planned for use in the cafe, but they have since been put into use elsewhere. He said donations of computers possibly would still be accepted.

Some furniture and other equipment for the cyber cafe would be purchased through a Madison County Community Development Block Grant. The village applied for a $96,500 grant for the center recently.

In other action:

• Treasurer Bill Kleffman notified the board and residents about several seniors programs available through the Southwestern Regional Aging Commission.

'Fiber Focus '99' set for June 18-July 30

Art St. Louis' "Fiber Focus '99" exhibition will include work by Chu-Hui Chiu, Jessica Hensley, Constance Miller, Shaunta Ray and Laura Strand, all of Edwardsville, and Rebecca Bailey of Belleville.

Art St. Louis, a not-for-profit art organization and co-op gallery in downtown St. Louis, will present the juried exhibition, "Fiber Focus '99," in the Art St. Louis Gallery June 18-July 30. A free opening reception with an awards presentation will be from 6 to 9 p.m. June 18. A free Juror's Gallery Talk will be at 10 a.m. June 19.

A special free lecture will highlight the opening weekend of "Fiber Focus '99." Exhibit juror Yoshiko Iwamoto Wada will present "Structure and Surface: High and Low Tech Fabric Making and Transculturalism" at 2:30 p.m. June 20 in the auditorium at The St. Louis Art Museum. Wada will examine the broad range of innovative textiles being made in Japan from industrially produced textiles to those handcrafted in artists' studios. She will discuss the scientific and industrial applications of textile production in combination with traditional textile techniques that have lead to the dynamic, artistic and fashionable manifestation in contemporary textiles.

"Fiber Focus '99" is presented in conjunction with the third Innovations in Textile Art, a city-wide program of contemporary textile art exhibitions, programs and seminars. Innovations in Textile Art will begin June 18-20 with 11 St. Louis area galleries, museums and nonprofit art organizations presenting fiber and textile exhibitions and related events throughout the summer.

Art St. Louis is located in downtown St. Louis in the St. Louis Design Center, 917 Locust St. The gallery is free and open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Fridays and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays. It is closed Sundays and holidays.

For information on Art St. Louis and the "Fiber Focus '99" exhibition and related events, call (314)241-4810.
